

JURY GOES OVER EVIDENCE ANEW

Game Into Court to Hear Once More the Testimony of Eye-Witnesses to the Famous Tragedy

DISAGREEMENT NOW DEFENSE'S BEST HOPE

New York, April 11.—The jury in the Thaw case, which came into court at 11 a. m., today to ask for certain exhibits and the re-reading of portions of the testimony, reported again at 3:04 p. m., and asked for the reading of further extracts from Justice Fitzgerald's charge.

One of these related to the testimony of Doctors Evans and Wagner. Justice Fitzgerald said these men were competent to give testimony as to Thaw's mental condition of their personal examinations.

Halted by Justice. Foreman Smith started in to discuss certain other phases of his charge with Justice Fitzgerald, but was stopped short.

"I can't discuss the matter with you. Be careful about that, Mr. Foreman," exclaimed the judge.

The jury also asked to be instructed as to what weight should be given to opinions based on hypothetical questions. Justice Fitzgerald had that part of his charge in which he said that opinions were not to be given the same consideration as facts read to the jurors.

Wanted Delmas' Address. The jury asked permission to have some portions of Delmas' summing-up address read to them, but Justice Fitzgerald would not permit it, saying it was not evidence.

The second request for information from the jury was taken as positive indication that the verdict, if rendered, will be based on the sanity or insanity of the defendant, and that the upturned law will have no part in it. The request for the reading of a portion of Mr. Delmas' speech was taken as a favorable indication by the defense, despite the fact that Justice Fitzgerald would not allow the request.

WANTED MORE LIGHT. Jury Asks for Exhibits and Evidence After Eighteen Hours.

New York, April 11.—After deliberating for more than eighteen hours without being able to reach an agreement, the jury in whose hands the fate of Harry K. Thaw was given at 5:17 o'clock yesterday afternoon, reported before Justice Fitzgerald at 11 a. m. today and asked permission to examine a large number of the exhibits introduced during the trial and also asked to have read to them the testimony of several of the eye-witnesses to the tragedy.

Among the exhibits called for were the letters which Harry Thaw wrote to Attorney Longfellow shortly after, as alleged, Evelyn Nesbit told him in Paris the story of her relations with Stanford White, and the will and codicil which Thaw executed the night of his marriage in Pittsburgh on April 4, 1905. The letters and will were introduced by the defense to show the mental storm which it is claimed, was brought upon the defendant by the story the girl related.

Asked for Diagram. The jury also asked for the diagram of Madison Square roof garden as it was the night Thaw killed White. This diagram was held up before them as the court stenographer read from the official record of the testimony the evidence given by James Clinch Smith, the brother-in-law of Stanford White, to whom Thaw talked for more than half an hour the night of the tragedy; the evidence of Meyer Cohen, the music publisher, whom Mr. Delmas had quoted in his summing-up address as saying that Thaw, after he had sent Stanford White to his death, held out his arms in the shape of a cross as a priest might do at some sacrificial ceremony; the testimony of Henry S. Plaise, of Paul Brind, the fireman who disarmed Thaw; of Warren Paxton, the engineer of the roof garden, and other witnesses.

The action of the jury in asking for the particular exhibits and the testimony indicated led to much speculation as to what the trend of their long discussion had been.

One Current Theory. One of the widely discussed theories was that the jurors either wanted to refresh their memories as to testimony tending to show either deliberation or premeditation on the part of Thaw or else they wanted to have the story of Thaw's actions the night of the tragedy rehearsed once more in order that they might judge as to his rationality. The suggestion of the latter purpose seemed to be given weight by the fact that they desired to examine the letters, the will and the codicil brought forward by the defense in support of its claim of insanity.

It was generally conceded that serious differences of opinion had developed among the jurors as to the evidence and that a verdict of any sort was still remote. The examination of the Thaw letters and the other documents called for will require much time.

his counsel expect is a disagreement of the jury. They have feared from the time the jurors retired that there might be a compromise among them on some lesser degree of guilt than murder in the first degree.

Did Not Inspire Hope. The action of the jury today in calling for the testimony did not inspire the attorneys to any new hope.

Following the testimony of Mr. Smith that of Officer John Barry, door man at the Nineteenth precinct station, where Thaw was taken on the night of the killing was read.

After being locked in their consultation room at 11 o'clock last night with nothing but hard chairs and a table to rest on, the jurors argued uneasily among themselves. The few ballots which were taken indicated, it is said, that there was a wide divergence of views.

Their confinement continued until 7 o'clock this morning, when two by two, the twelve men were marched to the Broadway Central hotel for breakfast. They looked pale and worn as they filed out of the criminal courts building, but on their return two hours later, their drooping spirits had somewhat revived and they exchanged smiles and words of sympathy with a number of newspaper men who have been in attendance on the trial since the 23rd of January.

Justice Fitzgerald arrived at the court house shortly after 10 o'clock. He had been preceded a few minutes by members of the Thaw family, all of whom seemed dejected and all but forlorn.

Just before 11 o'clock Justice Fitzgerald received a communication from the jury asking for an interview at which they might present their requests for exhibits and the reading of testimony.

Promptly at 11 o'clock the jury filed into the court room. Only the members of the Thaw family, his attorneys, District Attorney Jerome and the newspaper men were allowed to enter.

Strain Showed Plainly. The strain under which the jurors had labored since their retirement yesterday afternoon was plainly written upon their faces, their eyes were red, their cheeks a chalky white and the whole effect one of haggardness. It was evident that sleep had been a stranger to their consultation room last night. Jurors Pink and Steel seemed especially to have suffered in the long vigil. During the long time it required the court stenographer to read the testimony they desired, the jurymen lounged back in their chairs and appeared to keep awake only with the greatest difficulty.

When Harry Thaw was called to the bar he entered the room with a quick stride and bright eyes and carrying half a dozen morning newspapers. His manner and appearance bore out the statements of his counsel earlier in the day that he apparently was in better shape physically than any other person connected with the long and tedious trial.

Thaw Greets Relatives. Thaw bowed to his mother, his wife, his two sisters, the countess of Yarmouth and Mrs. George L. Carnegie and to his brothers, Edward and Joseph. He then turned to his counsel, Foreman Deming B. Smith of the jury stated that the jury desired not all of whom were present, and entered

PRESIDENT DECLINES MEMORIAL DAY INVITATION

Exercises to Be Independent of Lawton Monument Unveiling.

Indianapolis, April 11.—Dispatches have been received from Washington stating that President Roosevelt has sent a letter declining to serve as the principal speaker for the Memorial day observance at Crown Hill cemetery on Memorial day, as requested in an invitation sent him last Tuesday.

"We have done our part in being courteous to the chief executive of this country, and he has seen fit not to accept our invitation," said Colonel J. R. Foster, assistant adjutant general of the state G. A. R. today. "The local memorial committee will now proceed to select another speaker and conduct our memorial exercises entirely independent of the Lawton monument exercises, for which the president is to deliver the speech that day."

CRANK WITH A KNIFE WAS ON HUNT OF CARNEGIE

Frederick Slagel Seized by Alert Police at Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 11.—Carrying a pen knife which was opened and concealed partly in his cuff, Frederick Slagel, aged 32 years, was arrested in front of the Hotel Schenley today. Slagel was trying to gain access to the main lobby of the hotel, when seized by Policeman John Kennedy. He begged the officer to let him enter the hotel, saying that he wished to speak with Andrew Carnegie in reference to the sale of a patent device for milking cows. He was hurried to the Oakland police station.

When searched he had $261 on his person. He gave his address as Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. Carnegie was not in the hotel at the time of the arrest. Slagel was locked up charged with being a suspicious person. The arrest has caused a very close watch to be kept on every person to guard against possible assassination or injury to any of the notable guests who are today participating in the foundation exercises at the Carnegie institute. Uniformed policemen and detectives by the score are hovering about all the prominent men and the possibility of any unauthorized person reaching them is very remote.

Mr. Carnegie was not informed of the arrest of the man and is unaware of the unusual precaution to guard him against harm.

STRIKERS IN STAMPEDE TO RESUME WORK AT LORAIN

From 700 to 800 Workmen Take Old Places in the Yards.

Lorain, Ohio, April 11.—There was a regular stampede among the strikers returning to work at the local yards of the American Shipbuilding company today. The number of men who went back is estimated at between 700 and 800.

Every joiner who was out, went back and this department is running with a full force. The blacksmith department is also operating with nearly its full quota. The carpenter shop is running nearly to its capacity.

Yesterday fifty-one strike breakers arrived from Philadelphia. These men are all skilled riveters, who brought with them their entire crews of heaters, holders-on and bolters-up. The iron shipbuilders are still out to a man. The promised relief fund has not yet come, according to members of the shipbuilders union.

METHODISTS ENDORSE PLAN FOR HOME AT WARREN

North Indiana Conference Five Cars Plunged Down Embankment and Then Caught Fire.

Logansport, Ind., April 11.—One of the features of today's session of the North Indiana M. E. conference was the annual meeting of the Preachers' Aid society. This occupied most of the morning's session.

The program for this afternoon included an address by C. O. Morica on the Methodist Episcopal hospital and address by Edwin H. Hughes, president of DePaul university on "The Problem of the Man" and the anniversary celebration of the board of home missions and church extension, with an address by Rev. Dr. J. H. Fitzwater.

Rev. J. W. Cain, pastor of the Methodist church at Warren, has presented to the conference a proposition whereby Mr. and Mrs. William Chapman, wealthy Methodists of Warren, propose to give $50,000 and a site for a Methodist orphanage and old folks retreat at Warren. If the conference will agree to raise an additional $50,000 for its construction and maintenance.

The proposition was received with enthusiasm by the conference and a committee was appointed by Bishop McDowell to investigate the plan and report to the conference.

The principal interest in Wednesday's session centered about the Warren district presiding eldership and the selection of a successor to the Rev. E. L. Semans, the present presiding elder, who is to retire.

The importance is in the fact that his successor will probably be appointed from some important charge, leaving the way open for some ten or twelve changes in the largest degrees in the Northern Indiana conference. A

LOST LIFE IN A WRECK

Montreal, April 11.—Nine adults and six children are missing as the result of a wreck on the Canadian Pacific railway west of Chapeau, Ont., yesterday.

The following official statement was issued today by Mr. McNicoll, vice president of the Canadian Pacific railway:

"About twenty-two miles west of Chapeau, Ont., yesterday, the west-bound trans-continental train, which left Montreal on Tuesday morning, was partly derailed, caused by a broken rail. Five cars ran down an embankment and caught fire, said to have been from the cooking stove. Nine adults and six children are missing."

The following are names given: "William Day, London, England; Winnifred and Susan Horton, Charlton, Ont.; C. H. Golding, his brother and his brother's wife and two children, of Ballisworth, Essex, England; Mrs. August Dietrich and two children, of Worcester, Mass.; Mrs. R. B. Hampton and Mrs. R. Davidson and baby."

CALMLY ADMITS HE IS EMBEZZLER; THEN PROVES IT

Rudolph Crowell Gives Himself Up to Police at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, April 11.—Confessing to the embezzlement of more than $2,400 from the Well-Fargo Express company, of which he formerly was an employee, Rudolph Crowell, 28 years old, of Little Rock, Ark., gave himself up to the police today and turned over to them evidence which substantiated his confession. Crowell walked into the police station and told the story of his robbery of express packages, which took place in Little Rock on March 27. Crowell drove to the police station in a carriage from a hotel where he had been stopping since April 7.

DR. HAUGH SEEKS PARDON. Ohio Board Will Consider Dayton Murderer's Application.

Columbus, Ohio, April 11.—The board of pardons went into session in the office of Governor Harris today. Dr. Oliver C. Haugh of Dayton, who murdered his father, mother and brother and who was sentenced to die last Friday, but was given a reprieve to April 19, asks for a pardon.

as does R. F. Kaneen, formerly cashier of the Lorain Citizens Savings bank, who was sent up for seven years for embezzlement.

NOTABLE CEREMONY BASEBALL STARS OFF IS UNDER WAY AT PITTSBURGH AGAINST CHILLY WEATHER

Foreign Guests Welcomed Season of 1907 is Inaugurated to Rededication of Carnegie Institute. ed Under Very Adverse Conditions.

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 11.—The first ceremonies in connection with the rededication of the magnificent Carnegie institute of Pittsburgh, which will extend over three days, began at 9:45 o'clock today when William N. Frew, president of the board of trustees, welcomed the invited guests from England, Germany, France, Belgium, Holland, South America, Canada and the United States in the founder's room of the institute. The meeting was an informal one and was for the purpose of introducing the guests. Immediately following the guests, Mayor George W. Guthrie, of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Guthrie held a municipal reception in the foyer. They were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie, while President and Mrs. Frew presented the guests. At the close of the reception the museum and galleries of fine arts, including the international annual exhibition of paintings were inspected. The tour of inspection gave the visitors the first complete view of the institute buildings, which were well worth the exclamations of surprise uttered by the guests.

A few minutes before noon the guests left the institute for the Hotel Schenley, nearby where luncheon was served.

Forced to Send Regrets. The following persons who had accepted invitations, were compelled to send their regrets: Mr. and Mrs. Gray Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Edison, H. M. Barry, president of Carnegie hall, New York; Dr. John P. Billings, director of New York public library; Dr. Herbert L. Birdsman, Brooklyn; Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university; Wallace Buttrick, secretary-general educational board; Albert C. Case, member Carnegie Veterans' association; Dr. J. McKee Cattell, Columbia university; E. H. Gary, chairman executive committee United States Steel corporation; Dr. Daniel C. Gilman, ex-president John Hopkins university, Baltimore; John Hays Hammond, mining engineer, New York; Count Hatzfeld, German ambassador, Washington; Dr. Alexander C. Humphries, president Stevens institute of technology, Hoboken; John La Farge, artist, New York; Edward Robinson and wife, Metropolitan museum of art, New York; Melville B. Stone, general manager of the Associated Press; John Weaver, former mayor of Philadelphia.

President Sends Letter. President Frew, of the board of trustees, presided at the rededication ceremonies and in a brief address lauded the benevolence of Mr. Carnegie. A letter from President Roosevelt, who was unable to attend, was read. The letter read:

"The White House, Washington, April 11, 1907. Mr. Frew: I am not able to be present myself with you, therefore let me through you express my appreciation of the great work done by the founding of the Carnegie institute. Wealth is put to a noble use when applied to purposes such as those the Carnegie institute is so well designed to serve. In the fullest sense, every foundation designed to serve the educational uplifting of our people represents just so much gain for America. It is just so much credit for us collectively as a nation. The success of our republic is predicated upon the high individual efficiency of the average citizen. The Carnegie institute is one of those institutions which tends to bring about this high individual efficiency. Many things go to make up such efficiency. There must be a sound body; there must be physical hardihood and address in the trained nerve and muscle. There must also be a high degree of trained intellectuality, a high degree of trained intelligence which can only be obtained when there is both power to act on individual initiative and power to act in disciplined co-ordination with others. And finally there must be that training on the moral side which means the recognition in the average citizen of a high type of character—the character which insists upon rights and justly holds to duty in the fullest fashion. It recognizes the fact that the performance of duty to others stands even ahead of the insistence upon one's own rights. Through you I extend my heartiest congratulations to Mr. Carnegie and my wishes that he may have many happy returns of this day. Together with the acknowledgment which all of us must make of the public service he so signally renders when he founds institutions of this type.

Sincerely yours, Theodore Roosevelt.

Mr. S. H. Church, secretary Carnegie institute, Pittsburgh, Pa., said Mr. Carnegie was then presented by Mr. Frew and he was received with much applause. He delivered an address.

BIG FIRE IN LOUISIANA TOWN. Litcher, La., April 11.—A fire which started in a new building in the center of town early this morning burned over eight blocks, destroying a number of stores and residences. The loss will amount to about $60,000.

VALUABLE RACER DEAD. Louisville, Ky., April 11.—Blinondo, one of T. P. Hayes' Kentucky Derby eligibles, died today of lung fever.

STATE'S RIGHTS IN PERIL. Wisconsin Legislature Sounds a General Alarm.

Madison, Wis., April 11.—Assemblyman Facke introduced in the legislature today a joint resolution requesting the governors of the various states to call a conference in Indianapolis in November, 1907, to discuss and formulate plans for uniformity in legislation. The resolution declares that the rights of the states are endangered by the federal government, particularly as legislation affecting transportation and communication.

Chicago, April 11.—The base ball season of the National league for 1907 will open here this afternoon with a game between the Chicago and St. Louis clubs. Weather conditions were anything but the base ball variety, the thermometer registering near the freezing point. On account of the cold considerable uncertainty existed regarding the history of the two teams. Manager Chance, of the Chicago team, today announced, however, that either Lumligen or Pfeister would occupy the box for the home team, with the odds slightly in favor of the former, while Moran or Kling will do the backstop work. Fromme or Karger will probably pitch for St. Louis, with Marshall behind the bat.

Did Not Lessen Interest. Cincinnati, April 11.—Cool and cloudy weather did not seem to affect the interest in the opening of the National league base ball season by the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati teams today. Preceding the game a band concert was announced and an address by Mayor Dempsey to the two clubs. The batteries announced were Ewing and Schiel for Cincinnati and Philippi and Gibson for Pittsburgh. The bleachers began to fill as early as noon.

Forty Degrees at Detroit. Detroit, April 11.—The base ball season opened at Bennett park this afternoon with a game between the Detroit and Cleveland teams under a cloudy sky and with the temperature about forty degrees. Interest is great and soon after noon scores of enthusiasts began passing into the park. Detroit will present either Mullin or Siever as pitcher, with Schmidt or Payne catching and for Cleveland either Liebhart or Joss will pitch to Clark or Rembs.

Game is Called Off. Boston, April 11.—The opening base ball game of the season between the Boston and Brooklyn teams of the National league scheduled here for today was postponed on account of the cold weather and unsuitable grounds. If conditions are favorable the game will be played tomorrow.

Better at St. Louis. St. Louis, April 11.—Lowering clouds and a cold wind threatened this forenoon to prevent the opening base ball game between the American league clubs of Chicago and St. Louis. By noon the conditions were more promising. The batteries are: St. Louis, Howell and Buelow; Chicago, Walsh and Sullivan.

Only the regular players of the Chicago team will play in today's game, no new men having been brought along.

DEFENSE HAS CLOSED IN STANDARD OIL CASE

Government Begins Its Rebuttal in Chicago Action.

Chicago, April 11.—Evidence for the defense in the Standard Oil case now being tried before Judge Landis in the United States district court, was completed this afternoon with the examination of Edgar Bogardus and F. S. Hollands, and the government began its rebuttal testimony. It is expected that all testimony will be completed this afternoon and that tomorrow the attorneys will make their closing arguments.

Bogardus, who is traffic manager for the Standard Oil company, and who was the chief witness on the stand for the defense yesterday, was recalled for a short time today by the government. He was excused temporarily in order that he might get certain rate sheets which were needed in the case.

Hollands, chief clerk in the general freight office of the Chicago and Alton Railway company, was questioned by Attorney Rosenthal as to rates which he had given the Standard Oil company, applying to shipments of oil. In cross examination Assistant District Attorney Wilkerson questioned the witness regarding "special billing orders" issued by the Chicago and Alton company by means of which the bills for the shipment of oil were settled through the audit department of the railroad.

ARRIVES IN CHICAGO. Constantine, Accused of Murder, Was in Happy Mood. Chicago, April 11.—Frank J. Constantine, the alleged murderer of Mrs. A. W. Gentry, arriving from New York today. He was smoking a cigar when he stepped from the Twentieth Century limited and appeared to be well and in a happy mood. He was immediately placed under the guard of six detectives and taken to a nearby police station.

Her Sense of Justice Wouldn't Stand For It

"Two hundred dollars, please."

The New York drawing room was crowded with a fashionable throng on the eve of departure. The hostess, standing near the doorway, addressed her remark to a quiet, innocent looking lady who was about to pass through and who now viewed her with astonishment.

"Two hundred dollars?" she exclaimed. "What for?"

"That is your loss at bridge for the evening," said the hostess.

"But," exclaimed her guest, "I had no idea that we were playing for money. Why, I wouldn't do such a thing. What can you mean?"

"You don't suppose for one instant," said the hostess haughtily, "that we were playing for your health, do you? It is the usual thing."

"But I haven't got the money with me."

"Then you can send me a check—at once."

The guest, her sense of justice fully aroused by the imposition practiced upon her, drew herself up proudly.

"I am, as you know, not long a resident here," she observed. "It seems to me nothing short of robbery. Suppose I refuse to pay this money?"

The hostess shrugged her shoulders meaningly.

"If you do," she replied, with a sneering contempt, "there is no hope for you. From this time forward you will cease to be an honored and respected member of our sacred circle."—Tom Masson in Judge.

only the typewritten copies of the Thaw letters, will and codicil, but the originals as well. The papers were gathered together by Clerk Penny and made into a bundle.

The reading of the testimony of Officer Dennis Wright and John Anthony and Peter Barrett, doormen of the Nineteenth precinct police station, followed.

Lastly the jury asked to have read the testimony of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw so far as it related to the shooting; the testimony of Thomas McCaleb as to where the party was sitting on the roof garden, and the testimony of Dr. Allan McLane Hamilton, as far as it was allowed before the jury. Dr. Hamilton was allowed during the trial to testify that he had made four visits to Thaw following the tragedy and had formed an opinion as to the defendant's then mental condition. What this opinion was he was not permitted to state.

Testimony of Experts.

Foreman Smith asked to have read also that portion of Justice Fitzgerald's charge relating to the testimony of Drs. Evans and Wagner.

Referring to the testimony of these two experts Justice Fitzgerald said that they had made a personal examination of the defendant and that whatever the defendant said to the experts and was considered by them in reaching an opinion was competent evidence for the jury to consider.

The jury retired again to resume its deliberations at 1:30 p. m., after having listened to the reading of testimony for two hours and a half.

MOTHER BREAKS SILENCE.

Mrs. Holman Expresses Hope of Thaw's Acquittal.

Pittsburg, April 11.—"No matter how cruel Harry Thaw and Evelyn have been to me, I would like to see the jury acquit the defendant in the case for the comfort it would be to Florence. I sincerely hope the jury does acquit him and soon, for the sake of my daughter, and what it means to her peace of mind."

This is the statement made by Mrs. Charles Holman, mother of Mrs. Harry K. Thaw after a strenuous 18 hours of anxiety awaiting the return of the Thaw jury.

When it was understood that it was almost an impossibility for anything accurate to get from the jury room, Mrs. Holman was inclined to think it a bad omen.

Beyond making the expressions above Mrs. Holman had nothing to say. Nor would her husband talk for publication at this time.

NIGHT WAS A TRYING ONE.

Jurors Show Plainly Effects of the Long Strain.

New York, April 11.—After what is believed to have been a fruitless night of discussion and balloting, the jury in the trial of Harry K. Thaw was liberated from its conference room at 7 o'clock this morning and taken out to breakfast. The night had been a hard one for many of the jurors and the strain of the long trial and the longer hours of deliberation upon a verdict plainly showed on their pale faces and reddened eyes.

A jury looked up to consider a case is given no comforts. The chairs in the jury room adjoining part I of the trial term of the supreme court in which Thaw had his hearing are hard, straight-backed affairs, in which even a few moments of sleep for a tired jurymen would be well-nigh impossible. The one long table in the center of the room has sometimes done duty as a bed for the men among the twelve so fortunate as to draw it in a lottery to decide its disposition.

Wore a Serious Look.

The Thaw jurors have been a cheerful body of men, but today their countenances wore a serious look of men at issue with one another. There was nothing in their demeanor to denote that they had reached any sort of conclusion.

Justice Fitzgerald's charge on yesterday gave the jury the choice of four verdicts and it was said this morning that the disagreement of the jurors may have had to do with the degree of their verdict as much as with the broader question of guilt or innocence.

The court in laying down the law said it was within the province of the jury under the indictment to find a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree, wherein there had been design coupled with deliberation and premeditation; murder in the second degree, where there had been the design to kill but no premeditation; manslaughter in the first degree where there had been neither design nor premeditation but homicide in the heat of passion, and lastly not guilty on the ground of insanity.

Justice Fitzgerald charged that the character of a man's victim had nothing to do with the protection with being under equal protection with the good in the eyes of the law. He also said that the personal avenging of public or private wrongs has no place in the law of the land.

Jury Was Locked Up.

Justice Fitzgerald, in locking the jury up shortly after 11 o'clock last night, indicated that he would not be at the criminal courts building until 10:30 a. m. It was generally believed that if the jury had reached a verdict during the night and he had been so informed he would have made an earlier trip down town. It was said he had received no summons this morning.

If the jury should come into court today and report their disagreement there is little doubt but that Justice Fitzgerald will send them back to continue their deliberations. The trial, which began January 23, has cost New York county thousands upon thousands of dollars; has blocked the criminal calendar worse than at any time for many years for their business for an interval which in several cases has meant serious financial loss to them.

As these things being taken into consideration will, it is believed, induce Justice Fitzgerald to hold the jury at its task until all hope of a verdict is gone. On the other hand he may be convinced that if the jury was unable to reach a conclusion after last night's long session the matter is hopeless, and realizing the hardships through which the jurors already have come he may decide to release them from further consideration of the case before the day is done and declare a mistrial.

In that event Thaw would be remanded to the Tombs to await a second trial. This would mean another summer for him in the city prison for his case could not be reached again until late in the coming fall.

Was Preparing to Leave.

Newspaper men called at the Tombs early today and sent a message to Harry Thaw's cell asking how he felt. He said he was still confident and hopeful of a favorable outcome. It was said that Thaw had a good night's rest after returning to his cell shortly before midnight.

The guards at the Tombs said Thaw was packing up his effects, ready to leave the prison at a moment's notice should he be acquitted.

After reading the newspapers and just before coming over to the court, Harry Thaw sent a note to the newspaper men, saying there were so many mis-statements in the papers that he would like to give out a statement that would be official. It was as follows:

"I am told that it is impossible to tell what any jury will do, so I am attending to my ordinary affairs, but preparing for the best, as it is simpler to unpack my things if necessary than it would be to return here for them if the verdict is favorable."

"I had a very good cold bath. The bath room always is filled with fresh air in the early morning with the same temperature as out doors. Next I had weak coffee and rolls as usual. These details must have interest plus as they are often mistold."

(Signed) "Harry K. Thaw."

Jury Resumes Deliberations.

When the jury returned to the criminal courts building after breakfast they went at once to the jury room and again took up their deliberations.

Members of the Thaw family began to arrive at the criminal courts building shortly after 10 o'clock. In one automobile were Mrs. William Thaw, no word had come from the jury room. L. Carnegie and Edward Thaw. They went at once to the witness room adjoining Justice Fitzgerald's chambers. The judge came in a few minutes later.

When Justice Fitzgerald went to his chambers the court officers told him no word had come from the jury room.

Evelyn Nesbit Thaw made her appearance at the court house within fifteen minutes after the other members of the family had arrived. Through the heavy black veil she wore it could be plainly seen she was unusually pale. She walked as though much fatigued.

At 10:30 the newspaper men were admitted to the court room through the judge's private entrance, but the doors were not opened to the public. District Attorney Jerome and the lawyers for the defense were summoned to the room.

A few minutes later the jury asked for some of the exhibits and the district attorney's messenger delivered to the officer in charge of the jury all the exhibits in the district attorney's possession, including the large photographs of Evelyn Nesbit which she identified as having been taken the day she said White outraged her.

At 10:50 the judge took the bench and the jury was called into the court room.

A minute later an officer was sent to the Tombs to bring Thaw to the court room.

What Jury Wanted.

The Thaw jury asked Justice Fitzgerald to be allowed to examine the following exhibits:

Plan of Madison Square roof garden. The letters from Thaw to Attorney Longfellow.

The Thaw will and codicil.

The Comstock letter.

Delmas' hypothetical question.

Jerome's hypothetical question.

The jury also asked to have the testimony of Meyer Cohen, one of the eye-witnesses for the people, read to them. Justice Fitzgerald ordered it read.

Meyer Cohen is the witness whom Mr. Delmas quoted as having testified that Thaw threw his arms out in the figure of a cross after killing Stanford White.

The jury also asked that the testimony of Harry S. Blaise, another eye-witness of the tragedy, be read to them and this was ordered done.

Thaw Busy With Papers.

All the members of the Thaw family were in court. Thaw came in carrying an armful of papers he had been industriously reading.

The jury's action is taken to indicate there is still a possibility of a verdict being reached, though not soon.

The testimony of Paul Brudy, the fireman who took the revolver from Thaw immediately after the killing, was next read to the jury, as was also the testimony of Gordon Paxton, the engineer of the roof garden.

Led to Many Conjectures.

The action of the jury in asking for the testimony of the eye witnesses of the tragedy led to many conjectures. One of these was to the effect that the jury wanted to fix in its mind either the question of deliberation and premeditation on Thaw's part or else the rationality or irrationality of his acts.

Brudy is the fireman who disarmed Thaw.

The plan of the garden was held up for the inspection of the jurors as the testimony was read to them.

The jury then asked for the testimony of James Clinch Smith, Stanford White's brother-in-law, who had a long conversation with Thaw on the roof garden a few minutes before the shooting. Mr. Smith's evidence was read.

Myer Cohen's testimony had been largely a personal demonstration by himself of the attitude after the shooting and his manner of approaching Stanford White. Henry S. Blaise was with Cohen the night of the tragedy.

The testimony of James Clinch Smith was relating to the conversation he had with Thaw just prior to the shooting.

Finally the jury asked to hear again the testimony of the door man on duty at the Tenderloin precinct police station the night of Thaw's arrest and who gave the testimony as to the defendant claiming to hear the voices of young girls. The jury also wanted the cross-examination by District Attorney Jerome of one of the door men who said there were half a dozen women while Thaw was there and that some of them were unruly. Another door man had said that when Thaw complained of hearing the voices of girls, he (the officer) could hear no sounds whatever.

Thaw's Conduct an Issue.

When the jury's requests had progressed this far it seemed that there could no longer be any doubt but that the rational or irrational conduct of Thaw the night of the homicide was playing a leading part in the deliberations of the jurors.

WHOLE HOG OR NONE.

Widow Distrustful of Farmer Who Had Forker to Sell.

"It's curious how the people have turned around within a couple of years and become so distrustful," said the old farmer as the matter of graft and trusts was touched upon. "I had four hogs to sell and advertised them in the village paper. Half a dozen people came out to see them, and among them was a widow. She wanted me to swear to the breed, the weight and the fact that the hogs were in good health. She wanted to be assured of their good eyesight and hearing. She wanted to be satisfied that they were good natured hogs. She wanted me to sign a paper that I had raised the porkers instead of stealing them. When I had done all this and the sale was about effected, she suddenly turned and walked away."

"Hello, now, but what's the matter?" I called after her.

"You've cut their tails off," she replied.

"Yes; that was done when they were pigs."

"Then you knock off 50 cents apiece for missing tails or I don't buy. It's whole hog or none and no graft!"—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

JUDGE FITZGERALD'S CHARGE.

Struck Hard Blow to Some Contentions of Thaw Lawyers.

New York, April 11.—Justice Fitzgerald began his charge to the Thaw jury at 4:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and an hour later the twelve men retired to begin their deliberations. Justice Fitzgerald read every word of his charge carefully and slowly from a type written copy. When he had finished it was the opinion of every lawyer in the court room, including the Thaw counsel, that the charge had struck a hard blow to several of the contentions of the Thaw lawyers.

Judge Charges Jury.

Judge Fitzgerald began his charge to the jury by saying:

"Gentlemen of the jury, it now becomes my duty to give you such instructions upon the law as are necessary to enable you to perform your duties as jurors and to define to you the legal guides by which you are to be governed in considering the evidence and reaching your conclusions."

"Let me impress upon you the importance of the issue you are to decide. The life of a citizen within the protection of the law, it is charged, has been taken by the defendant, and the defendant is here to answer to the law for that. You must take the law absolutely from the court—the facts you are the sole judges."

"A defendant in a criminal action is presumed to be innocent until the contrary is proved, and in case of a reasonable doubt that his guilt is not satisfactorily shown he is entitled to an acquittal."

"Criminal homicides are murder in the first degree, murder in the second degree and manslaughter in the first and second degrees."

"Such homicide, unless excusable or justifiable, is murder in the first degree, when committed from deliberation and premeditation with a design to effect the death of the person killed. If it is committed without premeditation or deliberation, but with a design to kill, it is murder in the second degree. If the homicide is committed in the heat of passion, without design to kill, but with a dangerous weapon, it would be manslaughter in the first and second degrees."

"Defines Criminal Homicide."

"Such homicide, unless excusable or justifiable, is murder in the first degree, when committed from deliberation and premeditation with a design to effect the death of the person killed. If it is committed without premeditation or deliberation, but with a design to kill, it is murder in the second degree. If the homicide is committed in the heat of passion, without design to kill, but with a dangerous weapon, it would be manslaughter in the first and second degrees."

Leaves Tail Out So Cat Can Breathe.

A little girl persisted in wrapping her cat up in a shawl so that not a particle of it was visible. Her mother explained that the cat would get sick if it couldn't get fresh air to breathe and told the child to leave the cat's head out to breathe. A little later the mother saw her with the cat all wrapped up except its tail and told the child she was smothering it.

"No, I'm not," came the indignant reply. "I've left its tail out to breathe."—Chicago Tribune.

A Hard Schooling.

"Poppy's quite an entertainer. I heard him last night at an evening party."

"Yes; he developed that talent in the nursery."

"The idea! That young?"

ABRAHAM GREENICK DIES AFTER EXTENDED ILLNESS

Was Formerly an Engineer on Pennsylvania—Other Deaths.

The death of Abraham Greenick, of East Woodland avenue, occurred Wednesday afternoon at St. Joseph hospital after a prolonged illness from dropsy. Mr. Greenick had been a sufferer for a long time from the disease, and last December was taken to the hospital for treatment, hopeful that he might find relief from the dread disease.

Mr. Greenick was born at Bucyrus, Ohio, Jan. 23, 1847, and was sixty years old. He came to this city when a young man, and for more than thirty-five years has been employed as fireman and engineer on the Pennsylvania railroad, and was occupying the latter position when forced to relinquish his duties three years ago on account of failing health. The deceased is survived by two sons, Charles, of this city and Arthur, of Detroit, Mich., and by two daughters, Mrs. H. O. Hines, of Waukegan, Ill., and Mrs. Grace Smith, of this city.

Funeral services at the residence of his son Charles Greenick, 2431 South Webster street, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with interment at Lindenwood. The members of Tribe, No. 15, Ben Hur, will have charge of the funeral and will turn out in a body.

GOING HIM ONE BETTER.

An American tourist on a visit to Glasgow on emerging from the railway station was accosted by a lad with a familiar shout of "Carry your bag, sir!"

The gentleman handed the boy the bag and requested to be shown through Glasgow. Crossing George square, they came opposite to Sir Walter Scott's monument, and the boy said proudly:

"That is one of the largest monuments in Scotland."

"Oh," said the Yankee, with an air of indifference, "we have threepenny cigars as big as that in America."

They got on a tram car going east, and just as they alighted at the terminus a long circular piece of iron on a truck drawn by twelve horses came up the street. The American in surprise asked what that was for. The boy, remembering what the Yankee had said about the cigars and with a resolve to be even with him, replied:

"Oh, a new hotel has just been built in the Trongate, and that is the kitchen poker."—Tit-Bits.

ADVISE TO THE COURT.

Uncle Eph was before the court on the same old charge. After the evidence was all in the judge, with a perplexed look, said, "But I cannot comprehend, Ephraim, how it was possible for you to steal those chickens when they were roosting right under the owner's window and there were two vicious dogs in the yard."

"It wouldn't do you a bit of good, judge, for me to explain how I cotched 'em," said Eph solemnly. "You couldn't do it if yer tried forty times, and yer might get a hide full of buckshot do berry fast time yer put yer leg ober de fence. De bes' way for yer to do, judge, is fer yer to buy yer chickens in de market."—Woman's Home Companion.

METHODIST INDORSE PLAN FOR HOME IN WARREN.

WORST IN ROAD'S HISTORY.

Passengers Fought Way Desperately Through Flames.

Fort William, Ont., April 11.—The worst wreck in the history of the Canadian Pacific railway occurred yesterday near Chapeau, 300 miles east of here. Fifteen persons are missing and are believed to have been buried to death in the coaches. The wreck was caused by a broken rail which dished the train, the two tourist cars rolling down an embankment into a small lake below. Just before the accident a number of people in the coaches were pulled out badly burned but still alive. Most of the passengers received more or less serious injuries.

PIONEER DIES AT PAYNE.

Fort Wayne Mere Trading Post When Mr. Waterbury Lived Here.

Wabash, Ind., April 11.—Almost one hundred years of age Nelson Waterbury has passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. O. E. Kilpatrick, at Payne, O., where he removed several years ago.

Mr. Waterbury was a resident of Wabash county until about twenty years ago. Then an old man he removed to Roanoke and later to Payne, where he has lived with his daughter for years.

While living in this county he resided near Urbana and was a farmer during these years. He was born in St. Lawrence county, New York, January 10, 1815, and was thus more than ninety years of age at the time of his death.

He was married to Zilpha Barnes, February 6, 1860, and was the father of one son and three daughters. Ten grandchildren survived him.

He came west when twenty-one years of age and lived several years in what is now the city of Fort Wayne, then an Indian village and trading post.

He took the overland route to California during the gold excitement of 1849 and spent some time there in search for gold, but in vain. He returned in 1855 by way of the isthmus of Panama. During his long life he passed through many strange and interesting experiences for his was the life of the pioneer.

RANKE & NUSSBAUM SPRING A NEW CIGAR.

Present Wadsworth Bros.' Chico, Which Sells Like Wild Fire. Ranke & Nussbaum have recently introduced a new brand of cigars—Wadsworth Bros.' Chico. In size and quality they are the style of a ten cent cigar, but retail at five cents straight.

Ranke & Nussbaum's aim is to give the smokers of Fort Wayne the best goods possible, and they believe that in pushing and recommending the Chicos they have done a good thing for people who like a good cigar at a reasonable price.

The Chicos are made from a long clear Havana filler, and burn with a solid ash. In flavor and fragrance they cannot be told from cigars that retail at ten and fifteen cents. The fact that they are today the favorite smoke of the most fastidious trade, people who heretofore smoked nothing but ten and fifteen cent cigars, shows that this is true. Prove it for yourself, however, by trying a Chico. Put down a dime at Ranke & Nussbaum's counter and see if the two cigars you get are not better than any cigar you ever smoked before for twice the money. A-1116-15.

Miss Waneta Toskatomba, a full blooded Choctaw maiden with a good education and $100,000 in her own right, announces that she would rather devote herself to charity than matrimony.

Government Homesteads

In southeastern Colorado, where blizzards and hot winds are unknown, where you can enjoy the beautiful sunshine and bracing air 300 days out of the year, where cattle and sheep range all the year round and deep snow and zero weather are unknown.

This land is located along the Missouri Pacific railroad and near the town of Haswell, which will in time be a terminal division, as all trains now take water and coal at this place.

Water can be obtained at a depth of from 15 to 40 feet.

Like the land located by our forefathers in Indiana, can be had at the present time by paying a government fee of $16.35 and living upon it for eight months. If you ever intend to own a home of your own or wish to make any provision for your children, why not take advantage of this opportunity, for the days of homestead and cheap land will soon pass.

There will be an excursion which will take you to Haswell, Colo., April 16.

Quit paying rent and own a farm of your own.

Quit working for someone who robs you of your produce and calls it rent. Join us on the 16th of April.

Be sure and see me in time, so that I may make arrangements for your tickets to take you on up to the beautiful cities of Denver and Colorado Springs without extra charge.

The round-trip railroad ticket will cost you $32.15. It is worth that amount to see this beautiful country, and you can't see it without owning a part of it.

Don't Neglect It

It is a serious mistake to neglect a weak heart. It is such a short step to chronic heart disease. When you notice irregularity of action, occasional short breath, palpitation, fluttering, pain in chest or difficulty in lying on left side, your heart needs help—a strengthening tonic. There is no better remedy than Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. Its strengthening influence is felt almost at once.

"I have used 10 bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and can truthfully say it has done me more good than anything I have ever used, and I have tried nearly everything that I know of. The doctor who attended me asked me what I was taking and I told him Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, he said it was not going to do me any good, but it did. I have not taken any for a year now, and while there is occasionally a slight symptom of the old trouble, it is not enough for me to continue the use of the medicine. If I should get worse I would know what to do. Take Dr. Miles' Heart Cure as I did before. I consider myself practically cured of my heart trouble."

RICH YOUNG MAN TRIES TO KILL HIMSELF IN THEATER

Robert M. Crow, of Pittsburgh, Fires in View of Big Audience.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 11.—Robert M. Crow, a member of one of the wealthiest families of Pittsburgh, made what is almost certain to prove a successful attempt at suicide in a box at the Grand Opera house yesterday afternoon by shooting himself through the abdomen. Insanity resulting from a mad desire to accumulate quickly a vast fortune and too close study of the Thaw trial is given as the cause of the attempted suicide.

The prominence of Crow's family and the spectacular manner in which he went about the taking of his own life make the affair one of the most sensational and dramatic in the history of this sensation-producing community. Crow, who is only 22 years old, is now in the Homeopathic hospital and there is practically no hope of his recovering. With him are his wife and mother and his uncle, H. C. McEldowney, president of the Union Trust company, the H. C. Frick bank.

Causes Panic in the Theater.
The attempt at self-destruction took place while Miss Ethel Levey was singing her "Unrequited Love" song, and the report of the pistol shot and the sight of the young man falling half over the rail of the box precipitated a panic in the theater. Miss Levey fled from the stage, while many women in the audience fainted.

At the exact moment of the shooting Attorney W. C. McEldowney, an uncle of the young man, was hurrying to police headquarters to enlist the aid of the police in placing Crow under arrest as the result of a letter which the attorney had received just a few minutes before in which Crow told of his intention to end his life.

"It is another case," of Pittsburgh paranoias," declared both H. C. and W. C. McEldowney later. "Robert for some time has imagined that he was a failure in life because he had not already amassed a vast fortune in the two years since he has been out of school. He seemed to think that he could become a Carnegie or a Frick in a day."

"The Thaw trial had a great deal to do with his mental derangement. At the beginning of the trial he began studying the different forms of insanity as they were mentioned in the trial, frequently sitting up all night reading books on the subject. He certainly was insane."

Rest is the great restorer. We tire our muscles by exercise and then rest to restore them; yet a great many of us do not stop to think how little rest we give to our stomachs. As a usual thing our part of our bodies is so generally overworked as our digestive organs. A tired and overworked stomach will give signs of distress to which we pay no heed until at last dyspepsia takes hold. Indigestion is just a warning, and if we heed the warning we can easily avoid further consequences. KODOL is a most thorough stomach relief. It digests what you eat and gives the stomach the needed rest and greatly assists in restoring it to its normal activity and usefulness. KODOL is sold on a guarantee relief plan. It is sold here by all druggists.

A WOMAN TELLS HOW TO RELIEVE RHEUMATIC PAINS.

I have been a very great sufferer from the dreadful disease, rheumatism, for a number of years. I have tried many medicines but never got much relief from any of them until two years ago, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I found relief before I had used all of one bottle, but kept on applying it and soon felt like a different woman. Through my advice many of my friends have tried it and can tell you how wonderfully it has worked.—Mrs. Sarah A. Cole, 140 S. New St., Dover, Del. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes rest and sleep possible. For sale by all druggists.

NASTY GRAFT CHARGES IN DISBARMENT ACTION

Former Prosecutor Kurtz is Defendant at South Bend.

South Bend, Ind., April 11.—Former State's Attorney George Kurtz yesterday was made defendant in disbarment proceedings which are likely to develop a sensational story of graft, extortion and prostitution of official position. The complaint is probably the most unusual legal document ever filed in the local court, the charges covering forty-six typewritten pages and being signed by three of the most prominent members of the bar, Francis Lambert, William C. Crabb and Fred Gabriel. The complaint includes thirty-two specifications, the most important of which are the following:

Aiding Thomas Edward Clark, alias "Red Austin," to escape the jurisdiction of the state.

Conspiracy in a divorce case.

Agreement with the owners of slot machines to permit their installation in public places.

Acceptance of "protection" money from owners of gambling rooms.

Acceptance of compensation for the dismissal of a murder indictment returned by the grand jury.

According to the complaint Kurtz was admitted to the bar in 1892, but the charges cover his career for only the last six years. In that time the complaint states that "George A. Kurtz has been guilty of willful violations of his duties as an attorney at law and of conduct involving moral turpitude which render him unfit longer to continue in the practice of law, and for which he ought to be disbarred from the further practice of the law in all courts of the state of Indiana."

DEAFNESS.

Three New Haven Men Cured of Deafness by Dr. Wells, of Fort Wayne.

Messrs. Frank Grover, M. E. Gann and Jules Girardo, three well known citizens of New Haven and vicinity, have given testimonials in favor of the treatment of Dr. Wells, for the cure of deafness and head noises. These three men were cured, and more than satisfied with the results of their treatment. By the use of advanced methods in the treatment of these cases, Dr. Wells has been able to secure results not attainable by the old time methods. He cures suppurating or discharging ears, in most cases, in a very short time, often in three to five treatments, an achievement that was never accomplished in Fort Wayne until Dr. Wells introduced this treatment. He is the only ear specialist in Fort Wayne whose office is equipped for giving these treatments. If you have tried the old methods and failed to get satisfactory results, you should consult Dr. Wells. His office is equipped for giving you the best treatment in catarrhal diseases and deafness. He is located at 312 Calhoun street, opposite the Aveline hotel.

SOCIETY

Mrs. L. E. Bowser gave a beautiful little party this afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock complimentary to her niece, Miss Eva Bowser, who will leave a week from today for a trip abroad. The decorative scheme was pink and white in colors, with azaleas, hydrangeas and ferns used to decorate with. Progressive dominoes was the amusement. The guests were Mrs. Jules Simon, Mrs. Roland Walker, Mrs. Walter Smoot, Mrs. Clayton Gouty, Mrs. Fred Welch, Mrs. John McLachlan, Mrs. Otto Scheumann, Mrs. S. B. Bechtel, Mrs. Will Braun, Mrs. Chester Schlofer, Mrs. George Tibbitts, Mrs. Sarah Tibbitts, Mrs. S. S. Bowser, Mrs. Joe West, Mrs. H. H. Bowser, Mrs. C. M. Jones, Mrs. H. H. Parry, Miss Thilo Kloepper, Miss Emma Simon, Miss May Williams, Miss Gertrude Thompson, Miss Jessie Kruse, Mrs. Bertha Cour, Miss Alice Carroll, Miss Lucy Tourange, Miss Maude Wenger and Miss Edith Coverdale.

The young ladies who form the East End Embroidery club and a few other friends of Miss Eva Bowser were entertained yesterday afternoon by one of the members, Mrs. George Tibbitts. The visiting guests were Mrs. Roland Walker, Miss Maude Wenger, Mrs. Joe West, Mrs. Harry Bowser, Mrs. Jessie Kruse and Miss Norma Walker. The ladies took their sewing and remained to supper.

The special social event among the high school students of this month will be the annual junior dance which the class of 1907 will give in honor of the seniors. The dance will be held tomorrow evening in Mulqueen's hall, light refreshments will be served, music will be furnished by four players and some of the parents will chaperon the affair. The committee on arrangements are Miss Gwynn Baylor, Will Harris and Eben Lano.

Charles G. Page will give a "stag" dinner party at his home this evening. Mrs. C. H. Mock will leave tomorrow for a visit with her parents in Percost.

The ladies of the Inter Nos club will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. J. B. Stearns, 1208 Columbia avenue. Mrs. George Brunner, formerly Miss Grace Nowell, of this city, and Miss Minnie Brunner, of Kokomo, are guests of Mrs. Reuben Patterson. Mrs. W. B. Davis gave a little company yesterday afternoon in honor of the visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. David L. Bowers, of Prospect avenue, celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding yesterday by entertaining about thirty friends for the evening at pedro.

Miss Katherine Harper, of Gosben, was the honor guest at a theater party given at the Majestic last evening by Eugene Fitch. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Parfitt, whom Miss Harper is visiting; Miss Myra Smith, Miss Grace Davis, A. T. Bailey and J. H. Vesey. Mr. Fitch gave a supper at Anthony Wayne club for his guests after the theater performance.

There is a new sewing club in Lakeside which is without a name, but it has a decided object and a new one at that. Every week certain ladies meet at the home of one or the other of them at 10 o'clock in the morning, have a good dinner at noon and with the exception of the time spent in dining, sew for the hostess. If she has a shirtwaist suit cut out they sew on that. If it is linen for her house then bachelorette and napkins or sheets and pillowcases are hemmed. When one of the members was asked if the club earns stockings she replied in the negative, but declared she wished they did. Today this club is meeting with Mrs. J. E. Scroggy. The visit always lasts until 5 in the afternoon so five or six hours are spent in sewing. The members are Mrs. Perry Archer, Mrs. Will Leedy, Mrs. Mark Cocher, Mrs. W. D. Henderson, Mrs. E. W. Fuchett and Mrs. Scroggy.

Miss Edna and Miss Lillian Tucker gave a card party with a linen shower in honor of a bride-elect of the month, Miss Vera Johnson, last evening. A new way of keeping score of the game proved especially pretty and pleasing. Little bags of pink or white silk were given the players and candy hearts of the same color were used as counters, while hearts meaning the games won, and pink hearts meaning the games lost. Besides Miss Johnson the guests were Mrs. Harry North, of Indianapolis; Miss Ada Sawyer, Miss Frieda and Miss Louise Schubert, Miss Fannie Benoy, Miss Louise Pixley, Miss Agnes Russell, Miss Hazel and Miss Fairy Tibberty, Miss Josephine Crosby, Miss Katherine Graft, Miss Corinne and Miss Henrietta Struss.

Miss Hazel Straight entertained the Chi Theta Xi girls at pedro at her home on Washington boulevard east yesterday afternoon. The tally cards were sketches of fancy beads and made pretty remembrances of the meeting. The club members are Misses Flora Cook, Marie Scroggy, Beulah Alringer, Bonnie Auger, Emma Wefel, Alma Doehmann, Edith Nickell, Myrtle Carter and Pearl Kieley.

Miss Lizzie Prange, bride to be of this month, was honor guest yesterday afternoon at a company given by Miss Emma Schwallin. The young ladies who formed the company presented Miss Prange with gifts of graniteware. A delicious supper was a feature of the party, which was enjoyed by Misses Alma Didion, Sadie Meyer, Christina Thiele, Anna Sophie and Bertha Franke, Lena Binkol, Alma Schneider and R. Riemenschneider.

POTATO RACE IS LOTS OF FUN.

Ten round potatoes, with two vegetable dishes and two tablespoons are the materials required for the play. Place the potatoes in two parallel rows three feet apart, five vegetables in each row. A dish heads each row. The company forms in two equal lines, one behind each row, and the lines are numbered respectively with odd and even numerals. A timekeeper is appointed to keep tally and call the contestants, who are allowed just three minutes for the trial. When all is ready, Nos. 1 and 2 take their spoons and start down their respective lines, the object being to see which side, each member in turn, can gather up the line of potatoes, one at a time, to the spoon, carry them to the vegetable dish and deposit them without touching the potatoes with the hands.

SHRINK LINEN MATERIALS.

It is always advisable to shrink both cotton and linen goods before making up. The better way is to fold the linen in yard length, then baste the selvage edges together. It should now be laid in warm water for half an hour, then hung up to dry, pulling as necessary. Following this process, very little ironing will be required.

INSPECTING STREETS.

Officials From Kokomo Here Seeking Information in Civic Matters.

Mayor Will H. Arnett, City Attorney W. R. Voorhis, Civil Engineer W. F. Mann and J. F. Bergmann and Al McDowell, of the board of public works, were here from Kokomo today inspecting the streets and seeking other information upon municipal matters. They were entertained by Mayor H. H. Schmitt.

CITY BREVITIES.

Mrs. B. F. Thompson and son, of 806 Hugh street, have gone to Auburn for a short visit.

The Ruride Dry Goods company is making preparations to occupy the new addition to the store fronting on Main street that has been in process of construction for some months. The annual congregational meeting of the Third Presbyterian church will be held Friday evening in the Sunday school room for the purpose of the election of officers, hearing of reports and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

PUNISHES MAN IN BATH TUB.

Judge Sends John Art to Have Two Baths a Day.

Tellico, Ohio, April 11.—John Art got the first bath today he has had for ten years. He will have another this evening, and tomorrow he will take two. He will also take two every day for eighteen months. John was arraigned in Cleveland, O., charged with non-support of his four children, when the policeman who arrested him said to Judge Fielder: "I have known him for ten years and have arrested him on every known charge except murder. I wouldn't touch him for a month's pay. He hasn't been washed for a decade."

"Well, I shall have the gentleman cleaned up," said the judge, and sentenced him to two baths a day for a year and a half in the workhouse.

LAUGHLIN DEMANDS THE RIGHT TO INSPECT ARTICLES

Wants Skull and Black Jack Where Lawyers Can Look at Them.

Charles Laughlin, was in the circuit court this morning with an application supported by an affidavit in which he demands that Sam Augburger's skull, the Kennedy black-jack, the billiard cue and the written statement made shortly after the murder with which he is charged was committed, be placed in the hands of an officer of the court so they may be inspected by his attorneys.

There were no arguments in the matter although the state will make a strong light to prevent the articles from being inspected by the counsel for the prisoner. The skull is in possession of the sheriff as is the black-jack. Prosecutor Nindo has the billiard cue where he can get it when he wants it and he regards the statement secured from Laughlin and afterward transcribed as his own property. Judge O'Rourke took the matter under advisement and will rule on it in a day or two.

The judge also decided that he still has jurisdiction in the case and that Laughlin had the right to withdraw his application for a change of venue and a record of the ruling was made. Judge O'Rourke will preside when the case comes up for a hearing the latter part of this month.

Case is Reversed.

Local attorneys have been advised of the reversal of the ruling in the David C. Smith ditch case by the higher courts of the state. Smith and others made application for the establishment of a ditch in Maumee township under the law in force prior to 1905 and forty-five days after a new law became in force the county commissioners made an entry ordering its establishment. Remonstrants took an appeal to the circuit court, and after a jury had been impaneled on March 12, 1906, a motion was made to dismiss for the reason that the law of 1905 repealed all former laws and the board had no power to establish the ditch. The court sustained the motion and dismissed the appeal. An application will be made for rehearing.

Meyers Wanted Ring.

Gustave W. Meyers, according to allegations made by Maude Meyers, his wife, in a divorce complaint filed to day in the superior court, wanted his wife's ring a short time ago and when she put it in her mouth to keep him from getting it he bruised and scratched her face. She does not say whether he got the jewelry or not.

Other things charged are that he threatened to kill her, called her vile names and drew back his fist to strike her. They were married May 13, 1900, and lived together until the latter part of last month. He is employed at the Rolling mills and a restraining order was secured to prevent him from interfering with his wife or drawing his money. Colerick and Ninde are her attorneys.

Commissioners Selected.

The county commissioners have selected Harry F. Kinner and William N. Ballou as election commissioners to act in the balloting on the question of building the Maumee township stone road.

Wills Probated.

The will of Henry Braun, late of Adams township, was probated today, and to his widow, Wilhelmina Braun, he left one third of his estate and $500 in cash. The remainder of his property is to be divided equally between his children, Nettie, Osterhaus, Elizabeth Auer, John, Frederick, Louis, Carl, George, Anton, Henry and William Braun, Wilhelmina Declor and Katharina Weikart.

BELIEVES HUSBAND DOOMED.

Woman Writes Prison Officials Concerning Man Not Serving.

Michigan City, Ind., April 11.—A letter has been received here from a woman giving her name as Mrs. Nellie M. Kellogg, of South Dakota, in which she writes for a picture of Ulysses B. Kellogg, who she says is her husband and who she has not seen for some time. There is no such person here under death sentence, and prison officials think she refers to Ulysses B. Kellogg, sentenced at Lafayette two months ago for extensive Canadian land swindles. The matter will be investigated.

MAJOR FREMONT ON TRIAL.

Son of Old Western Pathfinder Faces Court Martial for Fraud.

New York, April 11.—Major Francis P. Fremont of the Fifth United States Infantry, a son of the late General John C. Fremont, faced a court martial here yesterday to answer charges of borrowing money on false representation as to his financial standing.

Clinton E. Praine, an officer of the Thirty-fourth Street National Bank, testified that he had loaned Major Fremont $300 in March, 1906, on his representation that he had $12,000 worth of property in San Francisco. The cashier of the bank testified that the loan was still unpaid.

GHOSTS ROUTED BY A NEGRO.

Practical Jokers Who Try to Frighten Porter Forced to Flee.

Hartford City, Ind., April 11.—Sam Gettys, Jr., and John Stiles, disguised as ghosts to scare Marshal Coo, a colored porter in a local barber shop, were chased out of an old cemetery east of this city last night by the victim-to-be of the joke.

Coo made the trip to the cemetery as the result of a banter. Gettys and Stiles had concealed themselves in the grave-yard and when Coo appeared they began to dart from behind the tombstones and utter unearthly groans. Coo, who had been put next to the tombstones, opened a bombardment on the white specters and under a rain of rocks the ghosts soon took to their heels to escape injury.

TRAIN WRECKER ARRESTED.

Boy of Nine Confesses to Two Attempts to Wreck Pennsylvania Train.

Newcastle, Pa., April 11.—Eugene Fandazzo, aged 9 years, the son of an Italian resident of Struthers, O., is said to have made a confession yesterday to Division Superintendent Henry Thompson of the Pennsylvania railroad that he had attempted to wreck fast trains on the Pennsylvania railroad near Lowellville, O., fourteen miles west of here.

The first attempt occurred February 6, when a switching crew discovered a pole weighted down with stones placed across the main line just before a fast express was due. Tuesday afternoon the Pennsylvania express, east bound from Cleveland to Pittsburgh, struck another obstruction in the same vicinity, but remained on the tracks.

The boy was taken to Youngstown, where it is said two charges of train wrecking will be made against him.

Studio Apron for Home Wear

By Mrs. Jane Ford.

If one wishes to keep dresses clean when doing housework, it is quite necessary to have aprons that may be readily slipped on and thus protect the frocks from being soiled. At the same time it is not always possible to procure a pattern that is neat and easily made. The general effect of the apron shown in the accompanying illustration is pleasing, and the outline is so simple that it may be made in a very short time and with little trouble.

The pattern is cut in four sizes, from thirty-two to forty-four inches bust measure. For a thirty-six inch bust the apron, made of goods with an up and down, requires four and five-eighths yards twenty-seven inches wide or three and three-quarters yards thirty-six inches wide. If material without up and down is used, four and a half yards twenty-seven inches wide or three and three-quarters yards thirty-six inches wide will be needed.

Almost any wash fabric that is sufficiently heavy to protect the dress may be employed in making such an apron. However, gingham, both in plain colors and plaids; chambrays, linens and mohairs, in gray or black, are most desirable, as they may be frequently laundered and come from the tub looking fresh and equal to new. A good quality of gingham and chambray will be had for from twelve and a half to fifteen cents a yard, and some may even be bought cheaper, but these are apt to fade or run when being washed. Linen will cost from twenty to twenty-five cents a yard. Mohair is more expensive, but will generally repay one in the end for the money spent, for as a rule aprons made from this material will wear twice as long as those fashioned from any other fabric, and incidentally usually make a better appearance than the ordinary gingham, and do not soil so easily. This goods has one other advantage which should be considered if the apron is to be worn for cooking or near the fire—that is, it will not readily catch a flame.

If preferred, in making the belt in the back may be omitted. It will be interesting to know that if a handful of common table salt is thrown in a bucket of cold water and gingham or chambray allowed to soak in this bath for an hour it will effectually set the colors so that they will not run when laundered. Brown is the most difficult color to wash without fading, and it wears poorly, as the iron in the dye rots the material. Linen should be washed quickly in warm water and a good soap, then rinsed and hung up immediately to dry, or it will fade and become almost white. Mohair is washed in the same way, but should be well blueed after being rinsed. Iron it before thoroughly dry.

(These patterns are designed by Mrs. Jane Ford and published by The Independent-Peoples Pattern Co., 107 West Twenty-fifth street, New York.)

MILLION-DOLLAR FIRE.

Oklahoma City, Okla., April 11.—A special to the Times-Herald from Chickasaw, I. T., says the cotton compress at that place, together with a vast amount of cotton, was destroyed by fire, causing a loss estimated at $1,000,000.

The richest man in the world can not have his kidneys replaced nor live without them, so it is important not to neglect these organs. If Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at the first sign of danger, the symptoms will disappear and your health will be restored, as it strengthens and builds up these organs, anything else will. Oscar Bowman, Lebanon, Ky., writes: "I have used Foley's Kidney Cure and take great pleasure in stating it cured me permanently of kidney disease, which certainly would have cost me my life." Wealthy Chicago Woman is Thought a Suicide.

Chicago, April 11.—The dead body of Mrs. Sylvester T. Smith, wife of a wealthy retired railroad official, was found in Lake Michigan at the foot of Forty-seventh street today. Mrs. Smith is believed to have committed suicide by jumping into the lake while temporarily insane. She is said to have been suffering from dementia since the death of her mother several months ago.

WINEKOOP IS HELD.

Railroad Officers Want Chance to Make an Investigation.

John H. Winekoop, arrested yesterday with a number of switch keys in his pocket, was held in the city court this morning under a bond of $50 to permit the railroad officers to make an investigation.

Albert Hutchinson, charged with drunkenness, was fined $5 and costs and John Bell, a Decatur barber, who was trying to dispose of his tools while he was drunk yesterday, was let go on his promise to hike for the capital of Adams county.

The case of assault and battery against Fred Roux was dismissed. It was filed to insure his presence as a witness.

PUSHES UP THE PRICE.

Standard Advances Figures on Common Grades of Gasoline.

Cleveland, O., April 11.—Another advance of one cent per gallon on common grades of gasoline will be announced by the Standard Oil company today. Deodorized red crown gasoline is advanced from 16 1/2 to 17 1/2. Valuable and painters' naphtha, previously quoted at 15 1/2, is now quoted at 16 1/2 cents per gallon. There is no change in the price of $5 degrees gasoline.

STATE HAS RESTED.

Defense Now Submitting Evidence in Galsauer Case.

Valparaiso, Ind., April 11.—In the case of Frank Galsauer, the Baltimore and Ohio Engineer, on trial charged with being responsible for the Woodville wreck, the state rested its side of the case at 11 o'clock this morning and the defense began introducing evidence at noon. It has five witnesses. The case will go to the jury tomorrow.

Liver a la Reine (as it was served at the famous Beguine in New Orleans)—Cut a pound of calf's liver in half-inch cubes. After washing and draining, place in a bowl which has been lined with an onion. Between two layers of liver place a layer of chopped onion and parsley, sprinkling with salt and dusting lightly with flour. Boil for an hour, take out the liver and shake off all the onion. Roll lightly in flour and drop into a deep kettle of boiling fat. Drain on paper, and serve very hot with a sauce made of butter, cream, sugar and spread between on top of the layers. Whip a cup of cream till stiff and add just before serving.

Banana Shortcake—Make a nice baking powder crust as for strawberry shortcake and while hot spread with butter and a layer of bananas, sliced thinly—with one orange to every three bananas; also cut very fine. Mix fruit with one cup of sugar and spread between on top of the layers. Whip a cup of cream till stiff and add just before serving.

TO CITIZENS OF FORT WAYNE.

The annual census of persons between six and twenty-one years of age is now being taken. It is hoped that all citizens will give to the enumerators full and accurate information in order that the census may be complete.

That it should be so is a matter of vital interest to every taxpayer in the city, as the distribution of state school funds is made upon his census, and the more money that is received from the state, the less there will be to raise by local taxation. Therefore it is to the interest of all that we report as large a number between six and twenty-one years as we honestly can report. We do not wish more than we have, but we do wish all that we have. Please bear in mind that it is a census of all persons between the ages above mentioned, whether such persons are in school or not.

There is another matter that is of especial importance at the present time and that is one of civic pride. For many years Fort Wayne has held rank as the third city in the state. Two other cities, at this time, are pressing for that rank, and if our census should be defective, Fort Wayne may fall to fourth or even fifth place in rank among Indiana cities.

For these reasons citizens are asked to assist the enumerators by giving a prompt and full information to the end that Fort Wayne may have full justice in the distribution of revenues, and also may hold its present rank as a city. Respectfully,

J. N. STUDY,
Supt. Public Schools.

VIOLA ALLEN

IN "CYMBELINE"

The Majestic theater was filled last evening with an audience eager to see Viola Allen in "Cymbeline." Miss Allen had made herself a favorite here in her previous productions of "Twelfth Night," "The Palace of the King," and last season in "The Toast of the Town," in which Miss Isabel Irving shared honors with her. In comedy roles of roles with less of the distress which surrounds the lovely character of "Imogen," Miss Allen has been peculiarly attractive. She was such last night and in the many beautiful and touching moments in which she shows her love for her husband, Posthumus, and in her repulsion of her mother, Miss Allen was impressive and her acting as full of grace and charm and her voice as rich with its varied cadences as ever. In rapid passages, however, Miss Allen's lines were not clearly spoken.

But people were disappointed in the play and even Miss Allen's charm and the beauty of the setting and sumptuousness of the costumes should not redeem the delivery of lines and bad acting. If there is any play when a company should be well balanced, with actors should not be able to appreciate the lines themselves, it is in a Shakespearean play. The exception of Miss Allen's Mr. Fuller Melchior, as Iachimo, gave the most satisfactory presentation in the performance. Mr. Melchior was delightful and his voice was such that it was possible to understand each word he spoke, but his acting was the part itself, the character one would connect from reading the play, and from hearing it. Sidney Herbert played the role of Cloten with considerable distinction and W. K. Harcourt as Leonartus, acted the lover finely and tried conscientiously in the scenes with Iachimo to reach the depths of feeling which the story of Iachimo's visit to the palace of Cymbeline demanded. He did not, Henry J. Haddock, as the king, looked the part and to his credit it may be said that his lines could be understood. C. Leslie Allen's Iachimo was excellent, though his lines were not always distinct. Miss Allison Skiploworth as the Queen was almost bad. One got the idea of the queen's craftiness, but scheming and plotting to get her son on the throne, or her domination of her husband in every way. Some minor parts were well acted, but the stage setting was marred somewhat by using the drop curtain belonging to the production. In itself the curtain was beautiful, but the idea of the stage opening of the Majestic, through which the light faintly glimmered. But it was not wide enough to fill the stage opening of the Majestic, and the scene suffered by the number of the intended effect was lost. The last act was not entirely satisfactory and the battle scene suffered by the number of curtain calls during the performance.

"Cymbeline" has not been presented in Fort Wayne for many years and then by Miss Julia Marlowe in the beginning of that part of her career which has ranked her in stardom. Baggby.

DRESSINGS.

Stuffing for chickens, ducks, turkeys or geese may be made of bread with seasonings of celery and parsley, of bread and sausage or bread and ham, oysters or chestnuts. A good bread dressing is made in this way.—Put into a saucepan four tablespoonsful butter and a half teaspoonful of fine salt. When the butter is melted add a cup and a quarter of fine bread crumbs, two teaspoonsful each minced parsley and celery, a teaspoonful salt and pepper to season. Toss until well heated, then add just the least bit of hot water or milk to moisten slightly and with it one beaten egg of egg. Fill the body and crop of the chicken, leaving plenty of room for the dressing to swell, then sew up. The sauce for the chicken may be of oyster flavoring of the cooked and finely chopped giblets, of olives, mushrooms or celery. To make the giblet sauce take the well cleaned gizzard, liver and heart, cover with cold water in a small saucepan and simmer until tender. Chop fine. When you have removed the fowl to a hot dish, pour the giblets with this broth in which they were cooked into the dripping pan with the drippings, thicken with a little browned flour, season with salt and pepper to taste and send to the table in a sauceboat.

enacted April 3, 1907.

Section 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, that it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, company or corporation to deposit or cause or permit to be deposited any dead animals or parts thereof, unless the same are first properly embalmed.

The undersigned was citizen of the salmon business, in the City of Fort Wayne, for many years, and has, in his opinion, been a law abiding citizen of the City, as well as a considerable taxpayer. During the current year, he sold and gave, into any of the rivers or other natural water courses within the limits of the City of Fort Wayne or within the corporate limits thereof.

Section 2. Any person, firm, company or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be liable to a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500, and to imprisonment for not less than 30 days nor more than 60 days, or both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court.

the first degree. All lesser criminal homicide are classified as manslaughter in the second degree.

"Homicide which is not criminal is justifiable homicide. Justifiable homicide is justifiable when committed in the lawful defense of the slayer or his wife or child, brother, sister, master or servant, or other person, when there is reasonable ground to apprehend that a crime is about to be committed against such person and there is imminent danger of the death being carried out.

"Homicide is excusable when, by accident or misfortune, it is committed in lawfully correcting a child or doing some other lawful act in a lawful way.

Insanity as an Excuse.

"Homicide is also excusable in insanity. The law is contained in sections 20 and 21 of the penal code. Section 20 says an act done by an imbecile, idiot, lunatic or insane person is not a crime. This language is very broad and would at first glance appear to apply to all persons of unsound mind without regard to degree of insanity. But section 21 limits section 20 as follows:

"A person is not excusable from criminal liability as an idiot, imbecile, lunatic or insane person, except upon proof that at the time of committing the alleged crime he was laboring under such a defect of reason as not to know the nature or quality of the act or to know that the act was wrong."

"Before murder in the first degree can be done, a distinguished jurist has said, it must appear that there was some act of deliberation and premeditation. This, of necessity, is for the comprehension of the jury.

"If you are satisfied that there was a design to effect death, but without deliberation and premeditation, you may find murder in the second degree. The defendant may be convicted under this indictment of murder in the first or second degree or manslaughter in the first degree.

Give Benefit of Doubt.

"When it appears that the defendant committed a crime and there is reasonable doubt of which degree he is guilty, he can be convicted of the lowest only.

"As I have tried to impress upon you since this trial began, the character of the victim furnishes neither excuse nor justification. The general character of the victim is not the issue, and no matter how bad he might have been he is entitled to the protection of the law.

"The personal avenger of private or public wrong is not recognized under our law. Every person is under the protection of the law. Good or bad, talented or humble, all are alike covered by its shield.

"The plea of not guilty is a denial of every material allegation charged against the defendant, and such evidence may be presented as will offset these allegations and establish his insanity at the time of the commission of the act. The law presumes that sanity is the normal condition of man, and wherein insanity is the plea that becomes the crucial question for the jury to decide.

"If there existed in the mind of the defendant an insane illusion it is not an excuse unless the illusion is of such a character that if true it would result in his injury.

Proof Must Be Positive.

"Proof of partial or incipient insanity is not sufficient as an excuse. The settled law of the state is that so long as that quality of the mind nature and quality of the act is present, no man may commit crime if he would escape the consequences.

"Under the rules of evidence the story, claimed by the defendant's wife to have been told by her to the defendant, is admitted, not as affecting the character of the deceased, but that you might consider what effect such a story had on the defendant's mind. In considering her story, her credibility as a witness is highly material, and everything that she has said or done must be taken into consideration. Her admissions regarding the relations existing between herself and the defendant prior and subsequent to this tragedy and prior to her marriage, or any other act should be weighed in connection with her story.

"A wide latitude was allowed on cross-examination. You should give due credit to all facts that were developed along with other facts.

"There has been no denial entered here that death resulted from pistol shot wounds inflicted by the defendant. The legal presumption is that the defendant was sane when he committed the act. It was not incumbent upon the prosecution to introduce preliminary testimony to show that he was sane. The burden of proof is upon the defense. Whoever denies sanity must prove that insanity is present.

"The burden of proving a crime is on the prosecution, but the burden of overthrowing sanity is on the person claiming it.

Little Faith in Experts.

"The hypothetical questions which were answered by the experts assumed facts. You are not obliged nor are you permitted to accept opinions as you would facts. In considering the testimony of medical experts, you are to consider their experience and knowledge, and you should consider the quality of the medical testimony and not its quality.

"The so-called irresistible impulse has no place in the law and is not an excuse, nor is every person of a disordered mind excused. While the burden of proof of insanity is on the defendant, he is also entitled to every reasonable doubt on the subject. If the defendant knew the nature or the quality of his act, or knew that the act was wrong, then he committed a crime.

"As to the distinction between reasonable doubt and a possible doubt you were thoroughly examined when you were about to become jurors. The law does not require that the prosecution shall afford every possible doubt. It only requires that the prosecution shall go beyond a reasonable doubt. The defendant is entitled to every reasonable doubt and that is all.

"You may in this case, let me say once more, find the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree, guilty of murder in the second degree, or guilty of manslaughter in the first degree.

"If you vote for acquittal on the ground of insanity you may state that ground in your verdict.

"You must be guided, gentlemen, entirely on the evidence. Clamor, prejudice or sympathy must not prevail. You must be guided by your reason and your judgment."

THE MARKETS

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Ill., April 11.—Predictions of rain for portions of Missouri and Kansas induced considerable buying in the local market, but the market was not much affected. Higher prices at Liverpool tended to steady the market. The commission business took charge of the offerings. May opened unchanged at 77 1/2c, higher at 77 3/4c, and sold off to 77 1/2c. Most of the local volume of trading was small. May opened unchanged at 77 1/2c, higher at 77 3/4c, and sold off to 77 1/2c. The close was steady with May unchanged at 77 1/2c.

The corn market was steady on moderate demand brought out by higher prices at Liverpool. The volume of trading was small. May opened unchanged at 77 1/2c, higher at 77 3/4c, and sold off to 77 1/2c. The close was steady with May unchanged at 77 1/2c.

Provisions were weak on realizing by small holders. The demand was slack. May pork opened at 15 1/2c, and sold off to 15 1/2c. The close was steady with May unchanged at 15 1/2c.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, April 11.—Opening prices of stocks showed considerable gains over last night's level on a moderate volume of transactions. New York Central advanced 1/2c, and Chicago Terminal 1/2c. National Lead 1/2c.

Liberal profit taking and a moderate amount of short selling in the afternoon retarded the advance and depressed most of the favorite stocks. The market closed yesterday's closing. The metal stocks were depressed, while the railroad stocks encountered support above last night's level.

The daily carried Chesapeake & Ohio and Corn Products preferred 1/2c, and Baltimore & Ohio Southern Pacific 1/2c. The market fell into extreme dullness and trading was feeble and hesitant. A point decline in American Smelting weakened the whole market at noon. Central Railroad of New Jersey sold at a decline of 3/4. Bonds were irregular.

The prices melted away after midday although the amount of stock sold was comparatively small. Smelting and Amalgamated Copper were the weakest specialties. The Harriman stocks and the Pacific and Amalgamated Copper 1/2c. Western Union and Union Pacific 1/2c. Reading, Brooklyn Rapid Transit, Sugar, American and Lo-

DEATH ENDS CAREER OF WELL KNOWN ELECTRICIAN

General Griffin is Stricken While in a Hotel Last Night.

Schenectady, N. Y., April 11.—General Eugene Griffin, first vice president and head of the sales department of the General Electric company, died early today. He suffered a stroke of paralysis last evening.

News of the death of General Griffin was received at the offices of the Fort Wayne Electric works this morning through telegrams to General Manager J. J. Wood and Assistant Sales Manager A. A. Serva. The latter came from F. S. Huntington and it stated that the general sustained an attack of apoplexy while in the Mohawk club, where he had been stopping for some time and where most of the officials of the Fort Wayne works stop when in Schenectady. General Griffin was only fifty-three years old and had the appearance of a healthy man. News of his death came as a shocking surprise. Mr. Huntington was in the Mohawk club when the general was stricken down.

SENDING OUT BOILER PRODUCTS

The shipping department at the Bass works is engaged at present in making shipments of products of the boiler shop. Parts of a boiler plant are being loaded today for shipment to Hidalgo, Mexico, making the fifth and last consignment on a contract for boilers mentioned some time ago by the Sentinel. Yesterday a number of clay mixing shells making a complete car load, were shipped to Willoughby, Ohio, and today a boiler was forwarded to Schack Brothers, Anderson, Ind., and a boiler was delivered at the old Hanna school building, which is soon to be a glove factory.

BOILER HELPERS' DANCE.

Tonight No. 24, Brotherhood of Boiler-makers' Helpers, will give their first annual ball at Saengerbund hall and the sale of tickets indicates that there will be a big attendance. C. J. Moncrieff, C. Abrams and J. J. Sullivan, who comprise the committee of arrangements, have been working hard to make the ball a success and they feel that labors have not been in vain. Barmen's full orchestra has been engaged for the occasion and the committee announce that ladies will be admitted free.

BIG CONSIGNMENT OF BOATS.

Otto Gunkel, who recently established a boat manufacturing establishment at the corner of Swaney avenue and Garden street, today sent a car load of steel boats to Rome City and will send another car load next week, there being twenty-five boats in the lot. These boats are constructed of corrugated steel, have air chambers, which make them buoyant even if upside down in the water, and are said to be light of draught and to possess other excellent points. Many of the cottagers are getting these kind of boats.

WORKING HOURS REDUCED.

A temporary reduction in the working hours at the locomotive department of the Pennsylvania shops has been made. The men have been working thirteen hours per day four days in the week, ten hours one day and five hours on Saturday, making a total of sixty-seven hours per week. Hereafter, or until further orders, the working schedule in that department will be ten hours the first five days and five hours on the sixth day, making fifty-five hours per week.

J. M. HENRY GETS CONTRACT.

Contractor J. M. Henry has been awarded the contract of erecting a double brick dwelling house for Machinist C. A. Agster on the lot at the northwest corner of Jefferson and Harrison streets. There will be six rooms, a hall and a bath room in each side and the equipment will be of the very best and most modern. The contract calls for the completion of the building by September 1. It will be one of the finest dwelling houses on Jefferson street.

LOST FINGER; OTHERS HURT.

Jacob Stroehn, a machinist who operates a large wheel press at the Pennsylvania shops, got his right hand caught in the machinery last night and the second finger was crushed off and the other three badly cut and bruised. Mr. Stroehn is all the more unfortunate in the loss of this digit because he lost a couple of fingers on the other hand in an accident a year or two ago.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Pennsylvania Shopman John Kaiser is sick and off duty.
Herman Lampe is a new man at the Pittsburgh planing mills.
C. Roy has taken a position in the shoe department of the Pennsylvania shops.
R. A. Westerman, of the Pennsylvania copper shop, is taking a lay off to attend to some private affairs.

this morning. Two weeks ago he had one of his feet painfully bruised.

Nickel Plate Brakeman W. D. Craig has resigned his position.

Louis Clayton has taken a position as fireman at the shops today was W. A. Kungster, who represents a manufacture of tool steel. He is a frequent visitor in Fort Wayne.

Mrs. Fredericks, landlady at the Railroad restaurant, went to Logansport today for a visit with relatives and friends.

W. L. Wilt has returned from a business trip to Philadelphia in the interest of the Pennsylvania motive power department.

M. Wefel, a helper in the Pennsylvania boiler shop, had an eye injured yesterday by a metal clipping and will be off duty a few days.

Fort Wayne trainmen at an receipt of invitations to the annual ball of the B. R. T. at Indianapolis, which will be given tomorrow night.

There were two sections of Nickel Plate train No. 1 at noon today. The occasion was two extra baggage cars and two cars loaded with immigrants.

J. H. McClellan took a position at the Pennsylvania round house this morning. Barney Meyers, of that place, is off duty on account of sickness.

Machinist W. Nessel, late of the Indiana Road Machine works, took a position with Foreman Charles Brenner at the Fort Wayne Electric works this morning.

Herbert Griffin, formerly of the stereotyping department of The Sentinel office, took a position as a machinist's helper at the Wabash shops this morning.

George Kallenbeck, a machinist, took a position at the Nickel Plate round house this morning. He was formerly employed at the Pennsylvania round house.

William Helme, tank inspector at the Pennsylvania round house, had an eye injured yesterday by a chipping of steel lodging in it. He is off duty for treatment.

Among the new men at the Pennsylvania shops are Machinists W. N. Turney and F. J. Darling, who were formerly employed in the Garrett shops of the B. & O.

Robert F. Kramer, who was acting timekeeper at the machine shop of the Western Gas works for some time, has been transferred to apprentice and the vacated place has been filled by William Eisenacher, formerly of the boiler shop.

Machinist John O. Bryant, of the Pennsylvania, who sustained painful injuries by being thrown from his bicycle when he ran over a dog last week, was able to report for duty this morning, though he still suffers from a sprained knee.

Louis J. McCulloch, Pennsylvania machinist, who was so badly burned several weeks ago by an explosion of coal gas in his greases comrade's yesterday and to say that he expected to resume his duties there in a few days there were two more immigrants.

There were two more immigrants on the Nickel Plate yesterday. It is estimated that the Nickel Plate has carried over 5,000 immigrants from Buffalo to Chicago within the past three weeks. Other travel is also past three weeks over that line this spring and extra trains are quite frequent.

W. D. Rowe, assistant yardmaster of the Wabash, reported for duty this morning, relieving Emil Florent, who was acting yardmaster yesterday in place of Denny Hayes, who has been sick several days. The yard force is still badly crippled by sickness, Messrs. Hayes, Miller, Moore and McNally being sick.

Another engine has been put into service at the Nickel Plate yards, the increase in traffic making it necessary.

Conductor F. G. Grinnome and Brakeman A. J. O'Keefe and F. Baum will have charge of it during the day time and the night gang is composed of Conductor F. A. Tagtmeyer and Brakemen T. Weaver and Grant Amick.

W. L. Blair, superintendent of transportation, and William F. Watterson, superintendent of the eastern division of the Nickel Plate, were in the city while yesterday, conferring with the local officials on matters of interest to the company. Chief Clerk W. A. Collier, who had been attending the funeral of his brother at Martin, Mich., joined the officials here and returned to Cleveland with them.

Passenger Agent C. A. Melin, of the Nickel Plate, is making arrangements for the annual excursion from Claypool and vicinity to Chicago, the affair this year to be under the auspices of the Macabees band, which will furnish music on the train while en route to the Windy City. Last year the excursion party from that territory numbered over 1,000 and this year the Claypool people say it will be increased by a half at least and they want train accommodations for 1,500 people.

Every passenger train on the entire Pennsylvania system is to have its number changed some time during the coming summer. This is to avoid the confusion which has arisen from trains, though on different branches, having the same number. Under the new arrangement there will be a special series of numbers for all through trains and the lines west will have a series for each branch line, the general arrangement being similar to that of numbering locomotives and cars.

The persistency with which the rumors of coming changes on the Nickel Plate are being circulated, strengthening the belief in them in certain circles. A Cleveland paper insists that there are to be some changes and says that when they occur it will be found that W. H. Canfield, A. W. Johnston, W. L. Blair, S. K. Blair, R. W. Mitchener, D. L. Caldwell and J. J. Callahan will be affected by them. It is said the changes will take place in May.

The merit and demerit report of Sup't. J. C. Sullivan, of the Wabash, for the month of March shows that one engineer, two brakemen and two operators were dismissed from service for violating the rules and that demerit marks were given to seven engineers, three brakemen, three conductors, three firemen, three switchmen, one towerman, two agents and four operators. Seven engineers, twenty-one conductors, seven brakemen, one switchman and four operators were given credit marks and a number of employees were given credit.

BLOOD GETS SOUR.

At this time of year, says a well-known authority, the kidneys become weak, clogged and inactive, failing to filter out the poisons and acids, which sour the blood, causing not only facial and bodily eruptions, but the worst forms of Rheumatism, Nervous and Stomach troubles, Backache and painful, annoying urinary affections.

It is worth anyone's time now to get from some good prescription pharmacy the following ingredients: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after your meals and at bedtime.

This simple home-made mixture will force the kidneys to normal, healthy action, so they will filter and strain all uric acid and poisonous waste matter from the blood, and expel this in the urine, at the same time restoring the "full blood count"—that is, 95 per cent red blood corpuscles—which is absolutely indispensable to perfect health.

PLAN TO RETALIATE.

Would Bar American Typewriters from Use in Germany.

Berlin, April 11.—During the discussion of the budget committee of the reichstag today of the appropriation to purchase typewriting machines for the military authorities, Dr. Sudetun, socialist, introduced a motion providing for the exclusion of American machines "because of the prohibitive effect of the American customs duties on German goods."

Herr Passche, national liberal, first vice president of the reichstag, supported the motion.

HARD TIMES IN KANSAS.

The old days of grasshoppers and drouth are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shanburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold cure and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed by Dr. King's New Discovery. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

"What is your occupation?" the magistrate asked John White the other day in the Westminster police court, London. "I steal pewter pots," replied the candid Mr. White.

HIS DEAR OLD MOTHER.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affects the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children, too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles by Dr. King's New Discovery. 50c.

The average life of a horse is twenty years, but these animals have been known to work in harness up to forty-five years.

What is it that tastes as pleasant as maple sugar and quickly relieves coughs and colds? Mothers who have used it will quickly answer: "Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup." The pleasant oil remedy that expels the cold through its laxative action on the bowels. Conforms strictly to the Pure Food and Drugs law. Contains no opiates. Sold by all druggists.

CARD OF THANKS.

To the relatives, neighbors and friends in general for their sympathy and kindness shown during the sickness and death of my beloved wife, Anna Goebel, also to local No. 58, American Federation of Musicians, for beautiful floral offering and especially to Rev. H. P. Dannecker for his kind words of comfort.

GOVERNOR PASSES OUT APPOINTMENTS ON THREE BOARDS

Two Made Under New Law Increasing Board Membership.

Indianapolis, April 11.—Three appointments were announced at the governor's office this morning. Adam Heimberger, democrat, New Albany, was named as the fourth trustee of the board of control at the central hospital for the insane. William A. Morris, democrat, Frankfort, was named as fourth member of the northern insane hospital board. Both of these appointments were made under the provisions of the law passed by the last legislature, adding a member to the institutional boards. Dr. Frank A. Leeds was appointed a republican member of the police board at Michigan City. These appointments were decided on when the governor was at his office last Monday, but were not made known until today.

DECIDE TO HOLD NEXT ANNUAL MEETING AT OSSIAN

Fort Wayne Presbyterian Societies Elect Officers.

Auburn, Ind., April 11.—Before its adjournment yesterday afternoon the thirty-first annual meeting of the Fort Wayne Presbyterian Home and Foreign Missionary societies voted to hold the convention next year at Ossian, and officers were elected as follows:

President—Mrs. N. B. Hughes, Fort Wayne.

Vice Presidents—Mrs. E. W. Walker, Goshen; Mrs. A. C. Ormound, Kendallville; Mrs. S. T. Cooper.

Secretaries—Home and Freedmen, Mrs. E. W. Walker, Goshen; foreign, Mrs. E. R. Yarnelle, Fort Wayne; literature, Miss Florence Purvance, Huntington; Y. P. S. C. E., Mrs. Martha Ripple, Warsaw; recording, Mrs. Charles Dicer, Decatur.

Treasurers—Mrs. Swinehart, Lagrange, for home and freedmen department, and Mrs. S. B. Nichols, Lima, for the foreign department.

All the reports made by the officers showed the society to be in a flourishing condition. The disbursements made by the society for the year were as follows: Foreign, $1,554.38; home, $1,030.45; freedmen, $568.36; contingent fund, $257; expenditures, $158.

The attendance at the convention was larger than for several years and the sessions were deeply interesting. Mrs. Hughes, of Fort Wayne, who was re-elected to the presidency, has held that office for the past four years.

SO KIND!

For not being subject to reproval within a period of six months.

The Meat Cutters' pedro party and dance at Tanner's hall last night was one of the best attended affairs of its kind held at that place this spring and it proved just as enjoyable as was successful in a numerical sense.

The pedro games occupied the early part of the evening and resulted in ladies' prizes being awarded to Mrs. F. C. Krausharr, Mrs. John Scherer and Mrs. Rose Funk in the order named and the gentlemen's prizes to Fred Krockenberg, Herbert E. Griffin and George Zimmerman in the order named. At 10 o'clock the games closed and dancing commenced.

THURSDAY, APRIL 11, 1907.

THE WEATHER.

Chicago, April 11.—Forecast for Indiana: Partly cloudy, with probably showers in southwest portion tonight or Friday; warmer tonight.

CITY BREVITIES.

Contractor Fred Rump has been given the contract to build the new home of Ed Schele in Lakeside.

The members of the Library Hall Athletic association are busy rehearsing for the performance that will be given on April 23.

William P. Beck, of the DeWald Dry Goods company, is very ill at his home, 609 Lavina street, and may have to submit to a surgical operation.

Perry Shober, of West Wayne street, who has been confined to his home for several weeks with an attack of inflammatory rheumatism, is improving.

A slight chimney fire at 1520 Calhoun street was extinguished about 7 o'clock last night by the chemical company of the department. There was no damage.

Marion Black, the automobile inventor, of this city, has applied for a patent for a transmission gear, which, it is said, will greatly affect the manufacture of machines.

The regular meeting of the Y. W. C. A. gymnasium class will be postponed until tomorrow night on account of the entertainment for the benefit of that society at the First M. E. church tonight.

Mrs. Abraham Kleist, of New Haven, who was recently adjudged insane, was taken to Richmond today by Rev. Philip Wambegans and Mrs. Thomas Turlinger, who were chosen for that purpose.

The degree team of twenty-five members of Ben Hur court, No. 15, and other members of the lodge, will go to Kokomo the first of May to confer degrees upon a large class of candidates.

Mrs. R. C. Bard will leave tomorrow on an extended visit with her parents in Kentucky. Sergeant Bard has been detailed by the army department to the Jamestown exposition and will leave soon to assume his duties.

Miss Belle Overdear, who went to Los Angeles, Cal., recently to join her brother, George Overdear, was taken suddenly ill soon after her arrival and as soon as she is able to make the trip her brother will return with her to this city.

H. D. Oert, a traveling man from Cleveland, in running to catch a car in Bloomington Tuesday evening fell and severely injured the muscles and tendons of the right arm. The right side of his body was bruised and a long gash cut in the right arm. He was taken to the Avelline hotel and given medical attendance.

Disinfectants

Drains which are not disinfected regularly are a drain on the health of the family. Damp places and rooms in which sick ones have been and rooms that have long been unoccupied need thorough disinfecting.

Below is our list:

Crude Carbolic Acid 50c per gal.

Chloride Lime 5, 10 and 15c.

Chloro-Naphtholeum 50c

Formaldehyde 40c per pint.
